

LEFT—Senior Airman Jose Berrios, 58th Maintenance Squadron, practices playing “Taps.”

CENTER—Airman 1st Class Glenn Robinette, 898th Munitions Squadron, and Senior Airman Michael Rogers, 58th Maintenance Squadron, practice acting as pallbearers.

TOP RIGHT— Honor guard firing party stands at ease, awaiting the order to come to attention by Senior Airman Scott Bass, 58th Aircraft Maintenance Squadron. Left to right are: Senior Airman Anthony Holly, 58th Maintenance Squadron; Senior Airman Bryan Judy, 150th Fighter Wing; Airman 1st Class Rory Baumgarten, 377th Contracting Squadron; Airman 1st Christopher Willingham, 58th Maintenance Squadron; Airman 1st Class John Mennano, 58th Aircraft Maintenance Squadron; Senior Airman Michael Rogers, 58th Maintenance Squadron; and Airman 1st Class Glenn Robinette, 898th Munitions Squadron. Behind Mennano, giving orders as the trainer, is Senior Airman Scott Bass, 58th Aircraft Maintenance Squadron.

Serving means practice, practice, practice

ABOVE—The honor guard performs the six-man flag fold. The carefully and precisely folded flag is handed to Senior Master Sgt. Noel Sepulveda, Air Force Safety Center, who presents the flag to the “family.” Left to right are: Senior Airman Anthony Holly, 58th Maintenance Squadron; Airman 1st Class Christopher Willingham, 58th Maintenance Squadron; Senior Airman Michael Rogers, 58th Maintenance Squadron; Sepulveda; Airman 1st Class Glen Robinette, 898th Munitions Squadron; Airman 1st Class John Mennano, 58th Aircraft Maintenance Squadron; and Senior Airman Bryan Judy, 150th Fighter Wing.

Photos by
Keith Pederson